

“Bringing All the Women to the Table: Reshaping Politics in Syria through a Holistic, Inclusive and Gender-Sensitive Feminist Approach”

A Side Event at the 41st session of the Human Rights Council,
Geneva, Switzerland

A panel discussion as a side event to the 41st session of the Human Rights Council, to share their practical experiences while reflecting on the findings of three recently launched policy briefs on the constitutional process, repatriation and early recovery and reconstruction.

The panel will bring to the table the voices of diverse women groups from across Syria, while shedding light on concrete feminist demands, roadmaps, and discourses.

Speakers

► Sabiha Khalil

A feminist advocate and political activist, is a founding member of the Syrian Kurdish first non-partisan women organisation “Komela Jin” and the Syrian Women’s Network. She is also a founding member of the SWPM, a member of the its General Secretariat, and the Chairperson of the its Organizational Committee.

► Saba Hakim

Is from the city of Idlib, She is a member of the Syrian National Council and of the Syrian Women Network. She is a founding member of the Syrian Women’s Political Movement and part of its General Secretariat.

► Joumana Seif

Is a Syrian Jurist and Human rights activist; She is a co-founder and the head of the legal Committee of the Syrian Women’s Network. Ms. Seif is also co-founder of the Syrian Women Political Movement.

Moderator:

► Madeleine Rees

Secretary General of WILPF

Time of the event:

12-1 pm

Location:

Palais des Nations, Room VIII