Advancing the Women, Peace and Security Agenda in Africa

A partnership between Sonke Gender Justice, MenEngage Africa, Institute for Peace and Security Studies, and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Sept 20-Oct 1, 2021, online.

Week One, Sept 20-24: 10-2PM SAST/CET

Week Two, Sept 27-Oct 1: 2-5PM SAST/CET.

Objectives of the Course

1. Increase understanding of participants on key concepts of conflict and peace building;
2. Strengthen participant skills and understanding of causes, drivers and analysis of conflict from a feminist and gendered lens;
3. Strengthen participants understanding of women, peace and security international and regional instruments and how to engage with them;
4. Strengthen the capacity of MEA partners to efficiently mainstream WPS agenda in their work and effectively advocate for the involvement of women in conflict resolution and peacebuilding processes;
5. Strengthen the capacity of MEA partners to effectively counter militarised masculinities and mobilise men for feminist peace.

6. Create an opportunity for MEA to identify and link with various initiatives, campaigns and institutions working on advancing the Women, Peace and Security agenda on the continent for collaboration purposes.

Expected Outcomes

1. Increased understanding of key concepts on conflict, conflict transformation, resolution and peacebuilding;
2. Increased skills and understanding of conflict causes, drivers and analysis from a gendered lens;
3. Better understanding of WPS mechanisms from the national to international levels and how to engage with them to promote the WPS agenda and advocate for women's participation and leadership in peace processes;
4. Increased capacity to mainstream peace and security in MEA's work and to address conflict from a gendered lens;
5. Increased capacity of MEA partners to effectively counter militarised masculinities and mobilise men for feminist peace.
6. Opportunities for MEA partners to link up with other organisations and campaigns across the continent to support women, peace and security work are created.
