Document type:

Resolution

The 16th Triennial Congress of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, 26-31 July 1965 in The Hague, Holland:

The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom,

Welcomes and supports suggestions of the Pugwash Conference of April 1965 "...that pilot activities be instituted in several European countries aimed at minimising secrecy in biological research, building mutual trust and confidence and (at) the conclusion of an agreement not to do research and development of biological weapons ..." and

Resolves that the WILPF works for a United Nations convention, to be signed by all States, members and non-members of the United Nations, which would

- (i) Prohibit all preparation for biological, chemical and radiological warfare; and
- (ii) Eliminate existing stocks.
